TERMS & ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Employer Membership term is a 12-month subscription – non-transferable. You'll be provided with access to our Employer Hub for up five employees.
- Our policy experts will provide feedback and answer questions on your workplace policy that support families. We can provide additional paid consulting support to develop a family friendly workplace strategy and to rewrite your parental leave and other workplace policies.
- Through the Employer Hub, we can connect you to other member organisations, provide research and supply resource articles to help you build the case for action for supporting families at work.
- APLEN is the Advancing Parental Leave Equality Network. Your Employer Membership automatically includes membership to APLEN events, publications and resources.
